Dear Dr. Young:

This communication is in response to your letter of August 29, 1995 requesting information on the American Academy of Neurology and Orthopaedic Surgery. The American Academy of Neurology and Orthopaedic Surgery is not recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) and is not authorized to provide certification under the auspices of ABMS.

I enclose a copy of our listing of approved specialty board and certification categories for your information, as well as a listing of self-designated boards. These self-designated boards are not recognized as meeting the standards, qualifications, or criteria for membership in the ABMS.

Sincerely yours,

Barbara S. Schneidman, M.D., M.P.H.

RE: Steven Hayne, M.D.

Dear Mr. Mills:

Last year I made an ethics complaint regarding the above named member of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences. The complaint was dismissed. However, bring this back to the attention of the Ethics Committee as new information has surfaced. In preparation for a civil trial I was asked to review Dr. Hayne's curriculum vitae for accuracy. I have enclosed copies of the errors that were found that relate to the American Academy of Forensic Sciences.

I am certain that you are aware of the gravity of this situation. While one or two errors on your Curriculum Vitae might be dismissed as oversight, the number on Dr. Hayne's CV clearly suggests a pattern of misrepresentation that goes beyond "padding" of your CV. Obviously, Dr. Hayne is presenting this curriculum vitae as his professional accomplishments, many of which he was not listed as the author or presenter.

I would appreciate your revisiting this matter.

Sincerely,

Dawn B. Young, Ed.D.
